Happy Valentines

Feb. 14

February has long been known as the 'Month of Romance'. Valentine's Day, as we know today has been celebrated by exchange of cards, gifts and chocolates being the annual ritual of many smitten couples over the years.

Love is a natural, gregarious, and magnificent feeling and bonding, that gives us the sense and vigor, to live life wisely, happily, generously, and meaningfully. The valentine's day is all about celebrating this invaluable and paramount love. Love is patient, love is kind. It has no envy, nor it boasts itself and it is never proud. It rejoices over the evil and is the truth seeker. Love protects; preserves and hopes for the positive aspect of life. Always stand steadfast in love, not fall into it. It is like the dream of your matter of affection coming true. Love can occur between two or more individuals. It bonds them and connects them in a unified link of trust, intimacy and interdependence. It enhances the relationship and comforts the soul. Love should be experienced and not just felt. The depth of love can not be measured. Look at the relationship between a mother and a child. The mother loves the child unconditionally and it can not be measured at all. A different dimension can be attained between any relationships with the magic of love. You just need to focus on the goodness of the other person. If this can be done easily, then you can also love easily. And remember we all have some positive aspect in us, no matter how bad our deeds maybe. And as God said Love all I just thought of pondering how Valentines' Day is celebrated in some countries. Valentine Day is nearing and all of us are in a love mood; shall we take a look at Valentines' Day around the world? India, somewhere around 1992 Valentine's Day started catching in India, with special media programs, love letter competitions etc. Spain only people in love get and give presents. Japan and South Korea, Valentine's Day is observed on February 14 but the celebration of love truly ends on March 14, known as the "White Day". Taiwan celebrates Valentines' Day on two days; one of February 14th and the other on 7th of July. They generally exchange red roses as a symbol of love and the number of red roses is of great significance. In Italy this day is celebrated exclusively by lovers. They give to their sweet heart gifts like perfume, chocolates, flowers, cards or Jewelleries and popular Valentine's Day gifts in Italy is Baci Perugina – a small, chocolate-covered hazelnut containing a small slip of paper with a romantic poetic quote in four languages. In Denmark, the festival is celebrated in a very conventional manner. Young people send gifts and valentine cards, known as "lover's cards", to their beloved.

Egyptians buy gifts and flowers for their lovers on February 14 In Israel, in this day is celebrated as a second holiday of love by secular people (besides Saint Valentine's Day). Tu B'Av, is considered to be the Jewish Valentine's Day following the ancient traditions of courtship on this day. In Australia celebrate Valentines' Day lavishly. They believe their love is priceless and buy exotic and out-of-the-box gifts. In Colombia, they celebrate Valentines' Day on the third Saturday of September. They call this day as "día del amor y Amistad; it means "day of love and friendship". Austria has some rather obscure courtship customs that may or may not be associated with Saint Valentine's Day. Nonetheless, it is customary for a young man to present his beloved with a bunch of flowers on February 14. In United States of America, Today children usually exchange valentines with their friends and there may even be a classroom party. The poets of Britain have probably penned the majority of the best-loved romantic verses associated with Saint Valentine. Different regions of the nation celebrate their own customs to honor this day, although the sending of cards and gifts of flowers and chocolates is always part of celebration in this country. They also have custom where special songs are sung by children, who then receive gifts of candy, fruit or money. In some areas, valentine buns are baked with caraway seeds, plums or raisins.

However, coming to more recent times, there are so many people who have special memories related to Valentine's Day. Silent walks by the beach, secret deliveries of messages, patient long waits at bus stops are just a few characteristic facets of a love affair. This is what some people reminisce:

Just want to spend some quality time with your loved one on V day but don't know what to do? Cooking has always been the most appreciated gesture one could display especially on occasions. So put on your aprons and try whipping up these easy 'Valentines Day Recipes' to find your way deeper to your loved ones heart through his stomach. An easy to make 'Eggless Potato Souffle' for brunch, or a sinful yet light classic 'Red velvet cake' for dessert, they're both sure to grab you many extra brownie points.

VALENTINE'S DAY TO ME IS

“ It means a romantic day out with the love of my life. Not necessarily hubby. Ha ha=D

Shaguna Khatri - 0 590

The whole year through we are busy with our lives and just like we celebrate our festivities this day we celebrate love. How many times we forget to tell our near and dear ones we care. So Valentine day for me is to share and re enforce that v truly care. To say that v have each other to share our hopes n dreams and that our love which has grown from so many years of togetherness will tide us over all of life's trials n tribulations.

VALENTINE'S DAY SPECIAL RECIPE

EGGLESS POTATO SOUFFLÉ

3 large russet potatoes, scrubbed, peeled & cubed ¼ onion, grated finely 1 ½ cups ricotta cheese ½ cup sour cream 4 tbs melted butter Salt & Pepper to taste ¼ cup Parmesan cheese Olive oil Spray

1. In a medium saucepan, place the potatoes with water going about ¾ of the way up the potatoes. Do not cover them completely with water, I find they cook faster with less water. Salt the water generously. Boil the potatoes until fork tender.
2. Drain the cooked potatoes and return them to the same hot saucepan and add the grated onion, ricotta, sour cream, butter. Mash until the potatoes and mix-ins are fully incorporated. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Add a little bit of olive oil if you feel the mixture is too dry.
3. Pre-heat oven to 350F/ 180C.
4. Take a 9" x 11" glass baking dish and spray with cooking spray. Sprinkle the parmesan cheese on the baking dish and shake it around so the parmesan sticks to the spray in the pan creating a coating. If there is any excess parmesan cheese, add it to the mashed potatoes.

5. Pour the mashed potatoes onto the baking dish. Smooth out the top and sprinkle some additional parmesan cheese on top.
6. Bake for about 30 minutes for the cheeses to fully blend and melt into the potatoes. You'll see how the potatoes will fluff up just like a souffle does...

RED VELVET CAKE

- 2 cups all purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon of baking soda
- 1 teaspoon of baking powder
- 1 teaspoon of salt
- 2 Tablespoon of unsweetened, cocoa powder
- 2 teaspoon of vanilla
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 cup vegetable oil
- 2 eggs 1 cup buttermilk • Frosting

Step 1) In a large bowl add flour, baking soda, baking powder, salt & cocoa powder. Whisk until well combined. Set Aside.

Step 2) In a separate large bowl, add sugar and oil. Mix until combined.

Step 3) Add in eggs, buttermilk, vanilla & red food coloring. Stir until combined.

Step 4) Next add in the coffee & vinegar. Stir until combined.

Step 5) Pour the flour mixture into the sugar mixture a little at a time. Beating until well combined.

Step 6) Pour the batter into 2 greased & flour 9 inch round cake pans. Bake for 30-40 minutes or until toothpick inserted into center comes out clean. Another way to check for doneness is to lightly press the cake on top, if it springs back then it is done, if the dent remains in the cake then it is not done. Do no overbake.

Step 7) When the cakes are done let them cool in the pan for about 10-15 minutes. Then remove them from the pan and let them finish cooling on a wire rack. While the cakes are cooling start on the frosting:

- 1-2 oz. red food coloring
- 1 teaspoon of white distilled vinegar
- ½ cup of prepared plain hot coffee (don't skip this ingredient)
- 1 (8 oz) package of cream cheese, softened
- 2 Tablespoons of milk
- 4 Tablespoons of butter, softened
- 1 teaspoon of vanilla
- 2 cups of powdered sugar
- Preheat oven 325F/162C (even 160 will do)

Step 1) In a bowl combine cream cheese, milk, vanilla & butter. Mix until combined.

Step 2) Add in powdered sugar and mix until silky smooth.

When the cakes are completely cooled, lay the first layer down (flat side down). Be careful, these cakes are very delicate & soft. Place a huge globe of frosting in the center and work your way out using an offset spatula or any flat knife. Place the top layer on next (flat side down) and frost the top and sides.

CHOCOLATE DECADENCE - FOR KIDS

Instructions: Butter an 8-inch square baking pan. In a heavy 2-quart saucepan, combine the butter, milk, sugar and salt and stir over low heat until the butter has melted. Bring the mixture to a boil over medium-high heat. Boil for 5 minutes, stirring constantly. (Only older kids and parents should be in charge of this step, since the mixture will be quite hot and bubbly.) Remove from the heat and stir in the miniature marshmallows until they have fully melted. Stir in the vanilla extract. Then slowly pour in the chocolate chips, stirring as you go, until the mixture is smooth. Turn the mixture into the buttered pan and smooth out with a plastic spatula, if necessary. While the fudge is still warm, score it into 16 squares. Once the fudge has cooled fully (which can take at least an hour), cut it into squares with a sharp knife. For heart-shaped pieces, gently press a mini heart-shaped cookie cutter onto each square and remove excess. Makes 16 2-inch squares (or slightly smaller hearts).

- 4tbsp. butter, plus extra for pan
- ¾ cup evaporated milk
- 2 cups sugar
- ½ tsp. salt
- 1 1/2 cups miniature marshmallows
- 1tsp. vanilla extract
- 1 12-oz. (340 grams) bag semi-sweet chocolate chips.
