JUHU VILE PARLE GYMKHANA HAS RAISED THE BAR LITERALLY

“Melting Pot” with a reputation for finest in Dining and JVPG Club was a perfect Match

JVPD Scheme occupies a special place amongst Mumbais who's who. In 1984 when the residents and plot holders of the 14 societies sponsored a Gymkhana to meet the recreational, cultural and sports needs of its Residents, JVPG club was born. Since then the Gymkhana has been in the spotlight encompassing all activities.

Fast Forward 2012 August 29. The Gymkhana is now host to one of the largest and finest Fine Dining hot spots in Mumbai christened “Melting Pot @ jvpg club”.

A place you would be proud to bring any one with food and service to match the finest in the world.

Juhu Vile Parle Gymkhana has raised the Bar literally.

“Melting Pot” with a reputation for finest in Dining and JVPG Club was a perfect Match.

The foyer is adorned with beautiful life size Rajasthani paintings in warm colours and is well highlighted enhancing the ambience and making it very attractive. A large serene Buddha welcomes you to a place of Quiet and Tranquility so that you can savour the best of a Dining experience. Huge Copper Entrances, a circular central sitout, warm paintings on the side walls and the large stunning expanse send out a message of space & beauty. The oversized tables and comfy italian chairs can lull you into a comfort zone in moments. The restaurant inside is indeed stunning. The cutlery, crockery and service is fit for a king. The Food is simply “Awesome”. The whole experience is mind blowing.

What thought crosses your mind when you see a delicious slice of cheese? Most of us would think of how it would melt in our mouth. But Clifton Fadiman, a true connoisseur could think of another viewpoint, "Cheese -- milk's leap toward immortality." When you are catering to the well traveled client, satisfying their palate is a challenge. But the food at “Melting Pot” is “everything sumptuous to die for...” says DJ Suketu. Dia Mirza puts it simply & aptly “the food is awesome..”. Actor Jimmy Sheirgill, a Juhu local, praised the service, and said that it was, 'fantastic to have a well-run, stylish restaurant in this area'.

Eating food is a necessity for all living beings, humans not excepted. But Good eating and living is about passion for cooking, love for the good things in life, grace in the entire process from cooking, preparing, plating, serving & relishing the whole experience said “Chef Sebasten Fernandez” who has filled the palate of the who's who during his 2 decade career and was the backbone of this entire culinary experience. It is not easy to satisfy the palate of the well heeled and well traveled who have globe trotted to the finest dining experiences and who can easily discern the subtle differences; be it in the age of your wines or crunch in your pasta or the culture used in the ageing of the cheese

It was no wonder that Fitness Guru Satya Chourasia, choreographers Terence Lewis and Sandeep Soparkar threw caution to the wind and dug into their food enjoying it thoroughly. Dia Mirza and Jimmy Shergill lavished their attention & praise on the spread and lovely ambience.

So when Zayed Khan “POP”ed/opened the champagne bottle open, happiness came spilling out in abundance for each of us to down the .... “Melting Pot” @ jvpg club. ■
